Date

General

This information is provided pursuant to Public Law 93-579 (Privacy Act of 1974), December 31, 1974, for individuals completing the Chief Counsel Application Form. This notice is applicable to all requests made to you to submit information under the Chief Counsel application process.

Authority

The authority to collect the information requested under the Chief Counsel application process is derived from 5 U.S.C. 301, and 26 U.S.C. 7801. However, disclosure is voluntary.

Purposes and Uses

The information you supply will be used principally to evaluate your qualifications for employment. This information may be furnished:

- 1. to the Office of Personnel Management for appropriate personnel actions;
- 2. to members of Congress for the purpose of answering congressional inquiries in cases in which confidentiality has been waived by the individual;
- 3. to the Department of Justice for the purpose of litigating an action or seeking legal advice;
- 4. an apparent violation of the law may be referred to the appropriate law enforcement authorities for investigation of possible criminal prosecution, civil court action, or regulatory order;
- 5. to a Federal State, or local agency maintaining civil, criminal or other relevant enforcement information or other pertinent information, such as current licenses, if necessary to obtain information relevant to an agency decision concerning the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant or other benefit;
- 6. to a Federal agency, in response to its request, in connection with the hiring or retention of an employee, the issuance of a security clearance, the reporting of an investigation of an employee, the letting of a contract, or the issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit by the requesting agency, to the extent that the information is relevant and necessary to the requesting agency's decision on the matter.

Effect of Nondisclosure

You are not required to supply the information requested in the application process. However, the effect of not providing all of the information requested could be rejection of your application for employment. A false answer to any question on the application form is punishable by law under 18 U.S.C. 1001.

Applicants are encouraged to retain this Notice for future reference as to their rights under the Privacy Act.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The time needed to complete this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is 18 minutes.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of this time estimate or suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you.
